

Description:

The Magallanes Interchange is a four-level partial turbine interchange in Makati, Metro Manila, the Philippines, serving as the junction between the South Luzon Expressway (SLEX) and EDSA. The rehabilitation works include the installation of new expansion joints that should be superior in quality and durability, able to withstand the heavy traffic loadings that the structure is subjected to.

Client : Department of Public Works and Highways

---

Subsidiary : Freyssinet International Manila, Inc.

---

Date Started : 7/2014

Date Finished: On-going

---

Freyssinet's Scope:

Supply of CIPEC Expansion Joints – Removal of existing expansion joints and plates – Installation of transversal expansion joints (type WOSd50) and longitudinal expansion joints (type Wd80).